Houser, Barnett Named Junior Prom Chairmen

Joe Houser of Coldwater, Mich. and Joe Barnett of Peru, Ind. have been chosen as co-chairmen for St. Joseph's 1955 junior prom according to an announcement by Roger Uecker, junior class president.

This marks the first time that co-chairmen will direct the prom preparations. Duties will be divided equally between the two and several committee chairmen have been made responsible to each.

May 14 has been chosen as the date for the formal affair which is traditionally held in the college fieldhouse.

"Southern Enchantment"

At a meeting of the various committee chairmen, "Southern Enchantment" was selected as the theme. Plans have already been laid for a complete southern weekend and in keeping with the theme, the fieldhouse will be converted into a southern mansion for the evening.

A scale model of the site has already been finished and the construction of sets and other decorations will soon begin under the direction of Bob Companik. Included in these preparations is a new seating plan designed to accommodate a larger attendance.

Approximate Price

Treasurer Jack Carlson has announced that bids for the 1955 prom will be approximately 10 dollars per couple in keeping with the policy started last year. The exact price cannot be ascertained at this time.

The actual weekend festivities will begin on Friday afternoon and will be climaxed by the prom on Saturday evening. Among the events planned for the two days are an informal dance, a baseball game and a candlelight supper. Plans for the weekend are under the direction of Marv Hackman.

Other committee chairmen are F. M. Rihm, Programs; Pat Evard, Favors; H. F. McCarthy, Formal Wear; Charles Rohan, Refreshments; Tom Holmberg, Workers; Jim McPolin, Housing; and Joe Kneip, Publicity.

Rev. Henry Martin and Mr. Paul Kelly are faculty moderators.

Station Soph Prexy

Mothers on TV

MRS. C. A. CHEEVERS, president of the Saint Joseph's College Mothers' club has been informed that some of the members of the club will be guests on the Don McNeill Breakfast Club next Thursday morning February 10, 1955. A spokesman for the group will plug the Friday, February 11 night card party and talk up St. Joe on the National TV show. Channel 7, Chicago, carries the show.

Georg Brunis Combo to Play For Dance After Ball State Game

The annual Mardi Gras dance, sponsored by the Student Council, will be held in Raleigh Hall Feb. 19. A basketball contest between the Pumas and Ball State will precede the dance which is set to begin at 10:00 p.m. and continue until 2:00 a.m.

Pat Evard, co-chairman of the Mardi Gras, has announced that Georg Brunis and his combo will be featured at the dance.

Pat Evard and Frank Unger have been appointed Co-Chairmen of the dance by the Student Council, and are being assisted by Hugo Pennington, ticket chairman and Bill Gillen, housing committeeman.

The date of this year's Mardi Gras has been set to correspond with that of the similar celebration taking place in New Orleans at this time. Noisemakers, confetti, and masks will be given to each couple to create the lively atmosphere that accompanies this yearly festival. The decorations, supervised by Bob Pitt, will lend a "French Quarter" setting to the dance. The entire ceiling of the Hall is to be covered with hundreds of multi-colored balloons and the walls and bandstand will be decorated with huge masks and flowing streamers.

Feature Georg Brunis

Georg Brunis and his dixieland combo, will provide music in the Southern tempo. Brunis has received much acclaim in the field of jazz during his appearances at various clubs in New Orleans and Chicago.

Tickets for the dance are now on sale, and will be available at all noon and evening meals. The price will be $3.00 per couple and will include a small buffet supper to be served during the latter part of the evening.

Chairmen Ask For Assistance

The Chairmen have asked the assistance of anyone desiring to lend a helping hand in decorating the Rec Hall. Since it is impossible to begin this task before the Rec Hall has closed, the greatest need for labor will be between the hours of 5:00 and 10:00 p.m. on the day of the dance. Those interested in helping out should contact either of the Chairmen some time before Feb. 19.

39 Students Better 2.5, Named to Dean's List

The names of thirty-nine students who maintained an index of 2.50 or higher have been released by Rev. Edward Maziarz, Dean of the college. This selection of names for the Dean's List is for the grading period from Nov. 6, 1954 to Jan. 27, 1955.

The top man scholastically for this grading period in the junior class is Marvin Hackman, who maintained a perfect 3.00. Robert Michalski, Richard J. Barnett, Joseph R. Maher, and Edward Henekes are also included in the list.

There are three sophomores who reached a 3.00 index—Donald Dirksen, Ronald Keller, and Franklin Monnin. Ranking close behind are Edward Dwyer, William Neville, Charles Vietzen, Anthony Smith, Aloysius Stryck, Marvin Fisher, Albert Greto, Daniel Keilman, and Joseph Turk.

Mr. Pupo to Address, NF Workshop, Feb. 13

By Tom Phillip

Mr. Salvatore A. Pupo, instructor in education at St. Joseph's College, will deliver the main address for the combined Press-Science workshop of the National Federation of Catholic College Students. This was announced by John Good, campus senior delegate and director of arrangements. Mr. Pupo's talk on "The Student Community" will highlight the opening session of the workshop, Saturday, Feb. 13, at 1:00 p.m.

Following the opening session the first of a series of three panel discussions will take place at 2:30 p.m. For the Press Commission, under the co-chairmanship of Jim Plate and Bill Gleason of St. Joseph's, the first will be "The College Newspaper and Student Community," as led by Clare Watson of St. Francis College. For the Science Commission, with Paul Temple of St. Joseph's as chairman, Martha Pictor of Marian College will lead a panel on "The Science Club in Relation to Student Community."

The second series will occur at 4:00 p.m. Saturday. Ann McMahon of Nazareth College will head a discussion on "The College Newspaper: For Whom?—By Whom?" for the Press Commission; while Rita Des Armier of Nazareth will lead "Audio-Visual Aids in Reference to Science" for their commission.

All St. Joseph students are invited to the panel discussions, as well as to the mixer in Raleigh Hall with Xavier (Chicago) and

St. Mary-of-the-Woods' after the basketball game with Indiana Central.

Following an 8:00 Mass and breakfast Sunday morning, the final panels will take place at 9:30. The Press Commission's Jean Banks of St. Mary-of-the-Woods will conduct "The Campus Newspaper: How much Standard?—How Much Spiritual?" The Science Commission's final panel discussion will be led by chairman Paul Temple on "The Feasibility of a Rotating Regional Science Commission Chairmanship." To Their Boundaries..

Is the government of the United States finally beginning to realize that the life of one of its citizens is more valuable than the chemical worth of the human body? This question is on the tongue of all young men of fighting age and warrants an answer from those responsible for the inhuman waste of lives in the recent Korean "police action."

We, as college students faced with the inevitable task of serving in some branch of the Armed Forces, should have at least some notion of why our lives are being needlessly sacrificed. And in the Korean battles the deaths were just that, needless.

Our president has stated that we will fight again rather than lose Formosa to the Chinese Communists. The question is: will we chase them to their boundaries and then retreat again? If Communism is allowed to sap us of our manpower by fostering revolts in minor countries, it is only a matter of time before we will be too weak to ward off its big blow.

Getting away from the actual wars and battles, it would seem that we are letting Communism defeat us right here in our own country. Suspected, and even known, Communists are allowed to seek shelter behind the Fifth Amendment, which states that they need not answer questions if their answers might be self incriminating. Apparently we are letting the rights of a known enemy take preference over the future of our country.

We have seen in past conferences and peace-talks with the Communists that they will not be satisfied until they rule supreme over the world. Unless we show them with a definite display of power that we are not a nation to be mocked and ridiculed, it would seem that we are actually helping them in their drive for supremacy.

Let us hope that if any more lives are lost in the fight against Communism, they are lost in a definite attempt to overthrow the very threat of that dread "disease."

Rosary or Rifle?

The eyes of the world are fixed with anxiety on the island of Formosa, 100 miles off the south China coast. Because of Formosa the world may be hurled into an atomic war, a war of annihilation from which no nation will emerge victor.

The Chinese Communists, striving to dominate all Asia, are determined to destroy the Nationalist army of Chiang Kai-shek and overrun Formosa. The United States is equally determined to support Chiang's forces and stop the Red tide which is sweeping over Asia. There appears to be no peaceful solution to the problem for the final goal of Communism is world domination.

With our civilization thus staggering on the brink of disaster it would be well for us to recall the promises made by the Blessed Virgin to three small children at Fatima in the spring of 1916. She told them to pray the rosary and offer sacrifices to atone for the sins of the world and hasten the end of World War I. The war which was to end all wars.

Our Lady asked that the world be consecrated to her Immaculate Conception and that we receive Communion on the first Saturday of each month in order to prevent a greater war in the future. She promised that if her requests were granted, Russia would be converted; if not the Communists would continue to spread their errors and the church would suffer.

Now is the time to turn to Mary and implore her to ask her Son to spare the world the horror of another war. Pick up your rosary now and you won't have to pick up a rifle in the future, for the power of prayer is infinitely greater than atomic power.

Frosh Choose Walters

William (Willie) Walters has been chosen the most outstanding Freshman-of-the-Month. Through his untiring effort, Willie has put new life into the St. Joe student body. With his superb cheerleading and hilarious motions at Puma games, Willie is undoubtedly a main factor in reviving the school spirit at St. Joe.

Walters is from Hammond, Ind., where he attended Morton High School. He was active in all school functions and activities and acted as a cheerleader at Morton.

At St. Joe Walters is not only a cheerleader but is also active in the glee club and "C. P.'s."

Even though Willie is from Hammond, he was still able to cheer our team on to victory at the basketball game in Chicago against Illinois Wesleyan during semester vacation. This is an excellent example of the real spirit a student can have for his school and team. The freshmen officers are proud to name William Walters the Freshman-of-the-Month.

St. Joe's Own Pinball Hero Cafeteria Bound

By Ray Malik

Auggie spent so much money on the pinball machine that he decided he had better get a job. He went to the kitchen and applied for work. They accepted him and immediately put him to hard labor behind the counter throwing the food on the plates. The first day he worked there the menu was: fried avocado on bun, boiled pears, scrambled bean fillet, and chocolate covered radishes (you can't hardly get them no more). Aug labored feverishly over the hot counter every day at breakfast, dinner and supper. He worked 72 hours a week.

He got so carried away in his work that he decided to major in hot counter and minor in dish-room. As electives he would take pots and pans. Some of the subjects he attempted to take were: Principles of Gravy Ladling, Contemporary Ice Cream Scoopers, Introduction to Pea Podding, and Fundamentals of Chicken Plucking. Aug had plenty of homework but he still managed to participate in intramurals.

He played basketball on the "Dirty A-Rabs" team of the Z league. They were on the bottom of the standings but they still had a tremendous streak of 10 straight games without scoring a point. Aug was averaging two shots a game but he still did a lot of damage. He acquired the revered nickname of "bloody elbows". In one game the "A-Rabs" were losing by one point with five seconds left to play. Aug got the ball at half court, pivoted, threw, and "swish"—his trunks fell down. Doggone elastic broke. The ball? ?—oh—it sailed over the backboard and out of bounds.

The other sport he participated in was bowling. One day at work he was boasting about the 176 he had gotten—series that is. He may not have been very good, but he was consistent. Aug was really looking forward to the intramural polo tournament that was coming up. He always did so well in that sport.

Then some shocking news came to Aug. He was fired from his job at the kitchen because he was putting too many beans on the plates. Such negligence was inexcusable. Sixteen beans was the limit and that was that. Meanwhile back at the ranch, Roy, Dale and Trigger—oops—I got carried away.

Well, Aug is poor again after spending his wages at the rec hall. It looks as though he'll have to write home again.

Grads Offered Swiss Fellowships

Opportunities for American graduate students to study in Switzerland during 1955-56 have been made available by Swiss universities and societies and by the American-Swiss Foundation for Scientific Exchange, it was announced by Kenneth Holland, President of the Institute of International Education.

The Universities of Bern, Fribourg, Geneva (including the Graduate Institute of International Studies), Lausanne, Neuchatel, and Zurich; the Federal Institute of Technology, Zurich; and the School of Economics and Public Administration, St. Gallen, offer tuition grants. These will be supplemented by stipends given by Swiss educational institutions and societies under the Swiss American Student Exchange. The grants were established in 1927 in appreciation of those given by American colleges and universities for Swiss students.

The American-Swiss Foundation for Scientific Exchange offers one or more grants for advanced research in the natural and medical sciences. Candidates must hold the Ph. D. or M. D. degree by date of departure.

The Canoe

Now that Lent is coming up many of the fellows think this the ideal time to complain about the lack of social life. Too bad they won't have the chance to get in some valid complaints, for within the next few weeks we'll have, among other things, two dances, a concert, three home basketball games, and an evening of readings by the Columbian Players.

The most important of these is the annual Mardi Gras; this year it has been timed to coincide with the national celebration which will be held at the same time in New Orleans. This dance will as usual be the first date dance of the second semester. Accommodations for the girls have already been made, thereby eliminating much of the fuss and bother on the part of the fellows trying to secure rooms for their dates. We have also been told that preparations have already been made to duplicate the holiday spirit of the great Southern institution of the Mardi Gras. Basin Street will be represented by one of the best jazz combos in the Midwest. There are plans for a new lighting arrangement which will produce unusual effects.

Pat Evard and Frank Unger, the co-chairmen, have gone to a lot of trouble to make the weekend possible. A good turnout would make all their trouble worthwhile. We'll be there, will you?

Mixer Time

Those of you disappointed by the cancellation of the Rosary mixer last weekend because of bad weather will be glad to hear of a dance this Saturday with St. Xavier's of Chicago and St. Mary-of-the-Woods here on campus. The 80 girls, 40 from each school, will arrive on campus in time for the Indiana Central game and will attend the dance afterwards. Also at this mixer will be several girls on campus for the NFCCS meeting.

An evening of enjoyment can be promised to all those attending the Venerans' Bingo Nite tonight in the Rec Hall. $125.00 in prizes will be awarded in 15 games, and all for the price of one thin dollar.

The Columbian Players are eagerly in search of some student or students to direct the third of three one-act plays to be given in the Rec Hall during the latter part of this month. Thus far scenes from "Our Town" and "Mr. Roberts" are on tap for that evening.

Mr. James Beane is organizing a handball team to take to Dubuque, Iowa, for a meet on March 12. While on the subject of handball, it might be well to add here that handball courts are one of our most needed items and, if here, would be one of the most used things on campus.

Because of a recent resolution passed at a Student Council meeting, all students will now sit on the south side of the Fieldhouse during basketball games.

"The American Scene in Song" will be the theme of a concert to be given on Feb. 28 by Miss June Kelly. The fourth in a series of concerts arranged by Mr. Kilmer, this program promises a rich variety of songs including some "pops" music.

Terry MacCarthy and Don Merki await a rebound in the Illinois Wesleyan game as Chet Pilat and Ray Banary close in. The Pumas won the game 87-77.

Hoosier Conference, ICC Provide Foes for Pumas

As the season draws to a close the Pumas will divide their games with Hoosier Conference and Indiana Collegiate Conference foes. The Indiana Central Greyhounds will invade Collegeville on Feb. 12 and four days later St. Joe will compete in a return engagement at Franklin. The remainder of the season will concentrate on ICC foes: Ball State, DePauw, Evansville, and Valparaiso.

Indiana Central, the defending champs of the HCC, is having one of its worst seasons in the last five years. The Hounds boast of two of the state's leading scorers in guard Dick Nyers and forward Bailey Robertson. Nyers, who stars in football and baseball as well as basketball, has scored 337 points in 18 games for a 18.7 average. Robertson, an ex-Attucks Tiger, has carried a 17.5 mark through 18 contests.

The Franklin Grizzlies play the role of hosts on Feb. 16 and hope to avenge the loss handed them by the Pumas earlier in the season. With the Franklin game over the Pumas can devote full time to the job of beating some league teams. A home game with Ball State and a trip to DePauw open the agenda.

The Cardinals handed St. Joe their second conference defeat on Dec. 16 at Muncie. State can boast of some fine scorers in Jack Cross, Stan Davis, Tom Dobbs, and Jim Blevins. Cross is sixth in conference scoring with a 16.0 mark while Davis has a 13.4 mark, Dobbs 13.1, and Blevins 9.7. Davis is one of the leading rebounders in the ICC.

State is tied with DePauw for fourth place with a 3-4 won-lost record.

The Tigers of DePauw were one of the teams that fell before the Collegeville crew in league play. The Pumas whipped the Greencastle team on Jan. 12.

PUMATTERS

By Dick Obergfell

The intramural basketball season has progressed to the second and final round and the teams are fighting for a playoff position and a chance to represent the school in the Extramural meet at Loras College on March 11 and 12. The Extramural meet of the top Intramural teams of four colleges; St. Joseph's, Loras, Lewis, and St. Norbert.

The whole idea started when St. Joe was a member of the now disbanded Midlands Conference. Each year the schools would send their top Intramural teams in Basketball, bowling, and volleyball and the individual best in hand ball and ping pong. When the Midlands Conference disbanded it was thought that the Extramural Meets would also be discontinued, but through the efforts of Mr. Jim Beane and the IM directors of the other colleges the meet is still held annually.

Last year at Lewis College the boys from St. Joe walked off with 17 trophies and we could do likewise this year with the backing of the student body. We need teams in volleyball and handball and ping pong players.

Sports in Spots

The Puma basketball teams suffered a twin loss on Feb. 3. Preceding the varsity loss to Indiana State the St. Joe JV squad was whipped 74-58 by the Sycamore junior varsity. Fred Bauer with 17 points and Ronald Tonielli with 16 markers led the losers. Fr. Boniface Dreiling has a 183 average in the bowling league at Remington, the highest in the league. He also holds the highest four game series with a total of 655 pins. John White has taken over as commissioner of IM activities. The post was vacated by graduating Ed Zander. The track team starts practice next week, the first meet will be held in Chicago on Feb. 26. Don Merki has the second highest average in the state. Don's 25.0 mark is second only to Don Schlundt's.

Leaders Beaten As IM League Enters Last Round

The second and final round of Intramural basketball got under way in an upsetting manner. The Berries, the only team in the school to have a perfect record, were dumped by the third place Hungry Five. In the "B" league the first place Shooting Stars were tripped by the Rebels 41-38. The "C" league leaders, Rebels, indicated that they are going to be tough in the second round by trouncing the Sheiks 41-18.

Following the second round a playoff will be held to determine the school champs and St. Joe's representative in the annual Extramural meet to be held at Loras College on March 11 and 12. The playoff will include the winners in each league of each round.

Feb. 16 is the date set by Intramural Director, Jim Beane, as the opening of the volleyball season. The winners of the league will accompany the basketball team to the Extramural meet.

The final standings for the first round in basketball are:

Xavier Sophs Win

The sophomores basketball team of Xavier Hall snatched a 51-48 win from the freshmen in an overtime period Sunday night January 30. Two fouls brought the annual classic inter-class game into the overtime. Sophomore guard Donald Ranly fouled Wally Lipp with less than a minute to go in the second half. Lipp sank his second foul shot and put his team ahead 48-47.

In the final seconds sophomore John Hoying was fouled by Lipp and with his second shot tied the game. In the overtime period the sophomores boosted their score three points and prevented the freshmen from scoring.

Mark Krabbe, the sophomore center, controlled the backboard the whole game and with his teammates grabbed over 65% of the rebounds. Krabbe led his team with twenty-one points. George Doyle, freshman guard, led his fast and rough team with nineteen points.

Ind. State Snaps St. Joe Winning Streak, 74-77

St. Joseph's string of four consecutive victories was snapped by the Indiana State Sycamores in a 77-74 overtime battle at Collegeville.

Though they led throughout most of the contest, the Pumas needed a basket by Ray Banary four seconds before the gun to knot the score at 69-all and require the extra period.

St. Joe Stops G. L., Ill. Wes. Over Holiday

The St. Joe Pumas built one of their longest winning streaks of the season as they whipped Great Lakes and Illinois Wesleyan on consecutive nights. The sailors fell 83-70 and Wesleyan topped 87-77 before the visiting Pumas.

As usual Don Merki led the Puma scorers in both contests with 25 against Great Lakes and 29 against Wesleyan. Willie Kellogg added 19 and 15 in the two games.

The Butler Bulldogs stopped a St. Joe rally in the final quarter and went on to beat the Pumas 80 to 72 in Indianapolis.

A quick basket by Bill Sisk and two free throws by Jim Cox in the overtime gave the Sycamores a four point lead and St. Joe couldn't close the gap.

The Pumas had held an early lead of 15-6 only to have State tie the score at 30-30 just before the intermission. Two free throws by John Tully gave St. Joseph's a 32-30 halftime lead.

The hometeam built their advantage to 54-47 midway through the final period, but the pressing Sycamores went ahead 60-59 on a jumpshot by Cox with five minutes remaining. The lead changed hands several times in the final minutes until Cox broke a 67-67 tie with a long shot from the corner with 20 seconds remaining. Banary then dribbled the length of the floor and dropped in the tying basket. The Sycamores controlled the ball during most of the overtime and outscored St. Joe 8-5.

Don Merki's 28 points topped the scorers. Forrest Dunnuck was State's high man with 19.

St. Joe had previously defeated Great Lakes 83-68 and Illinois Wesleyan 87-77 to run their winning streak to four games.

The Pumas travel to Indianapolis Tuesday to meet the Butler Bulldogs in the spacious Butler Fieldhouse. The defending ICC co-champs were dumped by the Pumas last month 72-49 and will be seeking revenge in this conference game.

Early Completion Date Seen For Buildings

Progress is more definitely shown in Bishop Bennett Hall (shown above) than in Archbishop Noll Hall. All outside masonry has been finished on the two halls and the partitioning of rooms has been completed in Bennett Hall.

The interior construction of Bennett Hall has nearly been completed. Plastering is the only major job as yet undone in the hall.

Commerce Club Ready For Second Semester

By Owen Weitzel

The pressure of exams and grades having somewhat subsided, the Commerce Club again is ready to engage in another semester's activities.

As most of the members will recall, the Club events of last semester were highlighted by lectures on business phases by authorities in the field, and a trip to the Studebaker Packard Plant in South Bend, Indiana. The attendance and interest show at these functions has made the Commerce Club one of the most active clubs on campus.

This semester will again offer the club members a chance to participate in those activities which will broaden his knowledge in the field of Commerce. The club officers are John Gorman, president; Roger Uecker, vice-president; Geo. Kalafut, secretary; and Tom Dudeck, treasurer. These four officers, along with the rest of the members, will plan the function of the club for the rest of the term.

Field Trip

The three most important events to take place this semester will be a field trip, two or three lectures and a banquet for all members.

Various suggestions have been brought up that would call for a trip to Chicago for a guided tour through one of the many businesses in that area. Two of the possibilities include the Board of Trade Building or the Stock Yards.

Each semester, several prominent businessmen attend the club meetings and give talks on their particular phases of business. These lectures are very interesting and informative. Last semester there were two such talks, and plans are being made to have several speakers for this semester.

Annual Banquet

To climax the year's activities all active club members are invited to attend a banquet to be held toward the end of May. One of the restaurants in town will be chosen as the site of the event.

All these events are part of the program of the Commerce Club of St. Joseph's. All who are interested may still join and become active in one of the most interesting clubs on campus.

College Glee Club Adds Members By Official Vote

Seven new members have been added to the college glee club, as announced last week by Rev. Lawrence Heiman, club director. They were officially voted in by the members of the club at a meeting held on Friday, February 4. The seven new members are: Frank Kopanda, Charles Lancaster, William Leonard, John Novak, Joseph Russo, Irwin Urban, and William Walters. Because of the already crowded membership and the difficulty naturally involved in training new members in the middle of the season, several applicants were not admitted at this time. Their names will be placed on the waiting list, however, and they are invited to make application again in September.

Fr. Heiman also announced that plans are progressing for a number of concerts to be given this spring, including a trip to Ohio late in April.

Student Attend Political Meeting

Five students from St. Joseph's were among the more than 100 Indiana college students, from 18 colleges and universities, participating in the second annual Student Conference on Politics, Jan. 13, at the Claypool Hotel in Indianapolis, Ind.

This was another step by the Indiana Citizenship Clearing House to develop better minds for better politics among the youth of the state and to encourage active political participation in party activities by a larger proportion of Indiana's college trained citizens.

Those participating from St. Joseph's, all political science students under the direction of Rev. Cletus Dirksen, were: Donald Biniak, Robert Lenzini, Mike Madalon, Harry Pluth, and Ed Sickel.
